

CAR RUNS INTO A CART.

Driver Thrown Out and a Lot of Coal Falls Over Him.

A coal cart owned by Offerman & Hunsenbottle, and driven by John J. McKelvey, was run into by cable car No. 53 at Frankfort street and Park row this morning.

Either McKelvey was not quick enough to get out of the way or the motion was too lively, for the cable car caught the corner of the cart with force enough to drive the latter on its side, as well as knocking it four or five feet away.

McKelvey, who had been whistling, stopped the music when knocked into the street. Over him came half a dozen or so barrels of coal, and then, before he could get away, the frightened horses made a forward move. The wheels of the truck were about passing over his body, when several bystanders rushed over and dragged him out. In trying to regain his feet, however, McKelvey, who held on to the reins, was again thrown down and under the truck. He was yanked out again by the same friendly hands, and then he and the cable car gripman told each other what they thought of the whole transaction. The cable cars were blocked from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock.

NEW DODGE TO GET MONEY.

This Gaudy Lets People Step on His Fingers.

A diminutive street Arab lay face downward on the sidewalk in front of a Fourteenth street place of amusement last night. His eye was glued to a perforation in the cover of a can-hole, and his arms were extended at right angles to his body. He seemed to be looking for a lost diamond or some other valuable. It was just at the time when people were leaving the hall, and in the crowd the little newsboy was hardly noticed.

Suddenly he uttered a loud cry of agony and jumped to his feet. Some one had walked on his outstretched hand, and the arching went through a series of contortions accompanied by howls of a Sioux Indian nature. Tears coursed down his unflushed cheeks, and the sympathies of the spectators were aroused.

The cause of his pain was a stout man, and he came down hard on the gaudy's fingers. The man looked foolishly and many of the ladies glared indignantly at him and called him a clumsy brute under their breaths.

The man led the boy to the curbstone and sympathized with him. The boy explained that he was looking for a dime that he had lost down the grating and told a regulation hard-luck story. A quarter stopped his sobs and the fat man hurried away.

As soon as he left the boy winked impudently at a lot of other boys and hurried off around the corner to another theatre, which was not yet out, and where another convenient can-hole decorated the sidewalk.

"Ain't he fly, that Sykes?" said one newsboy to another. "That's 30 cents he's made to-night by getting blazes to walk on his hands. He's a dandy crier at that."

THEY MARRIED SECRETLY.

Mr. Draper and Miss Hurry Wedded More Than a Year Ago.

Although H. J. Schuyler Draper has been married to William Vandervoort Draper for more than a year, the fact that they were man and wife has only just been made known to their friends.

Mrs. Draper is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ably Hurry, of 30 West Seventeenth street, and she has been quite prominent in New York society for two years past.

Mr. Draper is the son of George H. Draper, and a grandson of the late Simon Draper, who was once collector of the Port of New York. They were married on April 15, 1892, by the Rev. Dr. S. M. Haskins, at St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church, South Fifth street and Bedford avenue, Brooklyn.

Why they should have concealed the news is not known. Their engagement was announced a year ago last winter. Arrangements had been made to have the marriage take place at Calvary Church in this city some time during the past month, but as the time approached the wedding was delayed. The story of their wedding in Brooklyn, and the second ceremony was declared off. Society people are much interested in the affair, and say that nothing so romantic has occurred since Herbert Pell and Miss Kernochan stepped out and were married secretly about ten years ago.

Coaching Club's Long Drive.

A committee, consisting of Prescott Lawrence and Reginald Rivers, will start early next week to map out a route for the New York Coaching Club's annual drive. It is proposed to drive this year to the summer residence of Edward Webb at Shelburne Farms, Vermont. The trip will take four days, and, if successful, will be the longest drive ever attempted by the Club. The distance is more than 200 miles.

Jerseyman Walks Into North River.

William Butler, thirty-two years old, of Avondale, N. J., walked into the North River at the foot of Chambers street at 1:20 o'clock this morning. He was rescued by Peter Wolf and Thomas Graham, and taken to Chambers street hospital.

Horsehoof Kicked by a Horse.

John Mahon, twenty-four years old, a horse-shoer, of 22 Kenwick street, had his left leg broke by being kicked by a horse this morning at 147 Charlton street. He was taken to St. Vincent's hospital.

To Help Sick Women.

"I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done for me.

"I was so bad with falling of the womb and Leucorrhoea that I could not stand. I had doctored so much without benefit I was entirely discouraged. I expected to die.

"One evening I read in the 'Herald' about this medicine. I went to the druggist, got some, and took 2 bottles of the Compound, and used one of the Sanative Wash.

"I am now well and strong, am never troubled with either of the complaints. If more women would use Mrs. Pinkham's medicines there would be less suffering in the world."

The World Edition

Encyclopedias Britannica,

Exclusively for the Readers of the New York World.

The following announcement is of more than ordinary interest. By special arrangement the publishers of the New, Large Type Edition of that greatest of all Reference Libraries, the ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA,

NINTH EDITION, ENLARGED AND REVISED to date, are able to place that King of Books within easy reach of every reader of the New York World. This Edition,

IN 25 LARGE QUARTO VOLUMES, is absolutely new and is the only complete and unabridged edition of this great work in existence revised to date.

For more than one hundred years the Encyclopaedia Britannica has been recognized as the highest standard reference library on all subjects.

It is the production of eminent specialists in every field of thought and action; each article is a masterpiece bristling with genius and ripe scholarship.

This very fact has rendered it most desirable; but also too expensive—$125 to $200 per set limited its purchasers to rich people. We now offer a limited number of sets, to readers of THE WORLD, of the best Edition yet published, at only 10 cents a day.

From the publication of the first edition in three volumes, 1771, on down through the successive revisions to and including the celebrated Ninth Edition in twenty-five volumes, begun in 1876 and completed in 1889, no pains or expense were spared to make the Britannica the one peerless reference library.

When it is remembered that more than 2,000 of the world's greatest scholars have been employed and over $3,000,000 expended to produce Britannica it is not surprising that its price is high.

THE WORLD'S NEW LARGE TYPE EDITION is the Ninth Edition enlarged and revised to date; important American articles having been rewritten and about 100 pages of new matter added to each volume, together with new maps and plans throughout.

THE WORLD edition has been produced at an additional cost of nearly a quarter of a million of dollars and is absolutely new—the first complete set having been issued from the press Feb. 15, 1894.

Its twenty-five volumes contain 2,000 more pages than the Ninth Edition, and in mechanical make-up it is the STRONGEST AND HANDSOMEST EDITION YET PUBLISHED.

To introduce this New Edition a limited number of sets will be supplied at $1.98 per volume, or less than one-third the cost of the original; and in order to convince our readers of its superiority, a volume will be sent free for examination on receipt of request.

Not only are all Scientific and Historical subjects brought absolutely up to date, but a vast fund of new information is added relating to the material, social, industrial and educational progress of the world, together with many thousand New Biographies not in the Original Edition nor in any other Encyclopaedia.

PROPOSITION TO READERS OF THE NEW YORK WORLD. SEE HOW EASILY YOU CAN OBTAIN THE GREATEST ENCYCLOPEDIA THE WORLD HAS EVER SEEN.

One complete volume of this great work will be delivered upon payment of only $1.98. This is done in order that you may see that it is unabridged, and is in every respect as represented. There is no obligation on your part to take the remainder of the set. The remaining 24 volumes can be secured at $1.98 per volume as follows: Twelve volumes will be delivered on payment of $3 on delivery and 10 cents a day (payable monthly) thereafter, and the remaining 13 volumes will be delivered on same terms when the first twelve are paid for. Or we will deliver the whole set of 25 volumes on payment of $5 on delivery and $5 per month thereafter. This Edition is printed on a fine quality of paper, is elegantly and substantially bound in rich silk cloth, the lids of the book are of stout oakum board, which will hold its shape and never warp. The lettering in genuine gold leaf of the purest quality. It is bound with a double flexible back, just like an Oxford Teacher's Bible. It is an actual fact that this book is more strongly bound than the edition which is sold at $8 per volume. All charges are paid by us to any part of the United States.

Note.—Those who are not regular readers of the New York World may accept this offer by ordering The World for one month.
